GRESHAM FOR PRESIDENT.

An Effort to Boom the Ex-Postmaster-General.

CINCINNATI, November 21.—The New York correspondent of the Commercial-Gazette telegraphs to his paper to-night as follows: A movement to make Gresham the Republican candidate for President in 1888 has been inaugurated in this city, and has taken definite form. A confidential meeting of a dozen leading Republicans was held on Friday evening in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and the matter was fully discussed. The availability of Judge Gresham was strongly put by a gentleman from Indiana, who said that he would surely carry that State and was the only Republican who could do so. He has no entanglements and no personal or political enemies. His high character and great ability, together with his fine official record and personal popularity, will make him a strong man. There will be nothing to prevent Republicans of all sections and all shades and differences of opinion uniting upon him. A New York ex-Congressman declares that if any Republican could carry New York that man was Gresham, and his course in the Cabinet had been such as to make him especially strong. Another gentleman stated that he could say positively that Conkling would support Gresham and join actively in the campaign if he were nominated. It was asserted, too, that the mugwumps would go solidly for him if the Democrats nominated any other man than Cleveland. One of the gentlemen who was present had a two hours' interview with Conkling afterward, and my information is that the latter approved the movement.

Speaking of the Henry George vote, Henry Claws, the New York financier, said the other day: "Revolutions never go backward. The 67,000 votes cast for George is a real revolution, the handwriting of which is written on the walls in enduring ink. A similar uprising which it represents occurred a few years since in California, the result of which was to drive all the fabulously rich men from there, together with their great wealth, to New York for safety, and here they are now sumptuously surrounded, but since Tuesday's result they and others are not feeling as comfortable at their homes as they did."

Col. C. F. Crocker says, concerning the rumor that the Southern Pacific Company has purchased the South Pacific Coast Railroad, that there is no truth therein and that the property remains in the hands of Senator Fair. Meetings have occurred between the parties in interest, but as matters now stand Colonel Crocker considered it unlikely that a satisfactory conclusion would be reached. It is rumored that the original price placed on the road was $4,000,000, and that it was subsequently raised to $6,000,000.

Among the hundreds of distinguished gentlemen present at the church during the services over the remains of ex-President Arthur were Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, Hon. J. A. Logan, Gen. B. F. Butler, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Senator Everts, John Jacob Astor, Gen. Schofield and staff, Senator John Sherman and ex-President R. B. Hayes.

A San Francisco Call reporter has interviewed a number of prominent Democrats as to their choice for United States Senator. W. D. English and W. T. Wallace expressed themselves in favor of Hearst. Judge Hager, S. M. Wilson, J. P. Hoge and Fred Cox (of Sacramento) were non-committal. John Boggs gave his voice for C. P. Berry.

A gentleman from Indiana makes the statement that William H. English will lead a revolt in that State against the President and his administration, and will be a candidate for the Senatorship upon that issue.

The Utah Mining Company has levied an assessment of 50c per share, delinquent December 24th.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE.

It is Believed that it will be a Most Effective One.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—It is the belief of all the influential men who have arrived here since the elections this month that although this session of Congress will be a very short one, it will, in all probability, develop the Presidential candidates for both political parties. Everywhere the remark is made that Cleveland is straining every nerve on his message, and that he expects to make this the document of his life. Cleveland, it is said, will try to solve the problem now presented in the threatening wreck of the national banking system; that he will make an attempt to point out to the National Legislature what should be done with the foreign issues arising; what disposition should be made of the public lands, and many other matters before the people and which are crowding Congress for action. It is predicted also that the labor question will be touched upon very forcibly, and the whole field of technicalities in statesmanship gone over. The message will be the best evidence of the fitness or unfitness of Cleveland to occupy the position he is in of anything he has shown since he came to the White House, and it will, several Congressmen say, make or break him for the struggle of 1888.

Cleveland's Final Offerings.

New York, November 22.—A tall scroll of white chrysanthemums and roses, with the word "Finitis" woven in immortelles at the base, stood yesterday at the left of ex-President Arthur's open coffin, in the bedroom in which he died. It was the offering of President Cleveland. A cross of laurel, with a floral pillow inscribed "Requiescat in pace," was at the head of the coffin. Palms were crossed over the coffin. The body was attired in a suit of black, with a frock coat. The face was scarcely recognizable as that of Arthur to those who had not seen him since he left the White House. The features were thin, and the hair almost snowy white. Many of his friends called at the house to express sympathy and take a last look at the body. The coffin was closed last night and will not be reopened to-day.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Silver State says: The Virginia Enterprise has resumed its old business of reading out of the Republican party those who do not weekly submit to the orders promulgated by the corporations through its columns. It has formally excommunicated General Powning, of Washoe, for insisting against the abuse of the corporations that the "home rule" plank in the Carson platform means what it says.

It looks rather presumptuous for the imported grinder of the Comstock corporation organ, ere he has acquired the right to vote in Nevada, to read a man like Powning out of the Republican party for insisting upon a strict compliance with a principle of that party adopted in a State Convention less than two months ago. But the Enterprise has been engaged in the excommunication business so long that it cannot relinquish it, however ridiculous it may make itself. Years ago it read A. C. Cleveland, of White Pine, J. S. Mayhugh, of Elko, J. J. Linn, then of this country, and now of Washoe, and other prominent Republicans, out of the party, and subsequently it anathematized William Woodburn, now Congressman from this State, but the "reading out" had no further effect than increasing the popularity of those "read out," as it proved to the public that they had too much political independence to blindly follow the lead of the Enterprise, and obey the behests of the corporations who have owned it and controlled its political opinion for years.

Stewart's Tribune man thinks we need some legislation at the coming session properly placing Nevada's capabilities before the world. The old man forgets that the whole business will be sufficiently advertised the moment the "Rotten Borough" sends Stewart to Washington as Stanford's aid-de-camp.—Carson Union.

There seems to be some diversity of opinion in regard to whose money was spent to buy votes in Nevada at the late election—whether it was Stewart's or the corporations' coin. Stewart had the friendship of John W. Mackey, if not his financial backing.—Ogden News.

It is suggested that as the railroad collar has become too uncomfortable for some of the Republican members of the Legislature to wear it, Mr. Stewart might remedy the complaint by giving that instrument of torture an Alaska fur lining.—Virginia Chronicle.

THE GAME MADE UP.

The Carson Union says:

The Enterprise announces that every member of the incoming Legislature except the Democrats will go into caucus for the nomination of a Senator. This means, of course, that it expects the caucus to consummate the disgrace of this State by electing Stewart.

This is yet to be proved. It is even doubtful whether the Railroad Company has now the same high estimate of the usefulness of Stewart that it had when he was first sent over here months ago. He has wholly failed to conceal the object of his candidacy, and if elected he will go to Washington with the reputation in advance of him that he is merely the henchman of Stanford, and that his principal if not only mission in the Senate is to relieve the company of the payment of its huge bonded indebtedness by postponing it to an indefinite future at the lowest possible rate of interest. All of Stewart's pretensions in favor of silver and of the exclusion of Chinese from this country have failed to hide his real objects. This fact will destroy any influence which it was hoped might be coupled with his name as a Senator from Nevada.

Furthermore the notorious corrupt practices which have been developed through his candidacy in this State will reduce him to a level which is no better than that occupied by Payne, of Ohio. He will be useful only so far as his vote counts one in favor of the schemes of his masters. The Pacific Railroad Companies want better timber than that in their service. They want help instead of total weakness when it comes to influencing the votes of other Senators. Stewart has not played his cards shrewdly enough to satisfy them. They feel the danger which attends upon wholesale purchase of Legislators, and Stewart cannot report to them anything better than that kind of a scheme as the basis of success.

The defeat of Sargent in California has been a coquet for the subsidized railroads and takes the pith from their combinations. Stewart feels this, as is evident from his prolonged consultations at the corner of Fourth and Townsend streets. The idea therefore that the Enterprise is authorized to announce that the game is made up by no means well grounded. The fight on Stewart's hands is by no means ended, and he is in imminent danger of being deserted at the eleventh hour by his masters.

The protest of the honest people of this State against the new inquiry which is sought to be heaped upon them through the next Legislature must have its effect. Every man who thinks of voting for Stewart knows that he is simply carrying out a scheme that will humiliate this beyond redemption. It is not a question as between aspirants to the Senatorship. It is the question of the fair name and future prosperity of this commonwealth. Will any member of the Legislature, for coin, work so grievous a wrong upon this people as to vote for W. M. Stewart for the Senate. It is to be hoped not. Let his defeat be accomplished with such unanimity that Ormsby county alone will have the distinction of having stood by him!

HOME RULE ALWAYS.

The Silver State correctly remarks: What capital could the Democratic party make for future campaigns by the election of Mr. Stewart or any other imported candidate, to the Senate? Has not the President of the United States, who was elected by Democratic votes, deprived the Democrats of this State of the opportunity to arraign the Republicans for electing an imported candidate to the Senate, by appointing a Iowa carpet bagger to one of the best Federal offices in the State? In the event of the election of Mr. Stewart to the Senate, would not the Democratic charge of importing a candidate for Senator be answered by the Republicans with the counter charge of a Democratic carpet-bag Surveyor General? Again, would it not be inconsistent on the part of the Democratic members of the Legislature to exact pledges from a Republican who should oppose Mr. Stewart on the ground of non-residence, to support an Administration which appoints to one of the highest Federal offices in Nevada a man who can not claim even a constructive residence in the State?

If Nevada Democrats can not be successful, they can at least be consistent. They, as well as the Republicans, have declared for home rule, and if sixteen or more Republicans in the Legislature regard their pledges to the extent of voting for a home candidate for Senator, the Democrats can not do less than support that candidate to defeat an imported one. The Legislature is Republican and that party is entitled to the Senatorship. All the members of that party recently elected are pledged to home rule but if only a minority of them abide by their pledges, the Democrats, who are also in favor of home rule, should encourage right and rebuke wrong by voting with them for a Senator. In that way they will maintain their self respect, merit the respect of decent people of all parties, and assist in giving a death blow to the business of importing candidates.

All the State papers are displeased at the President's action in appointing an Iowa man as Surveyor General of Nevada. It is an outrage.—Austin Reveller.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PRICE OF DAILY JOURNAL.
12 1/2 CENTS PER WEEK.
WEDNESDAY.....NOVEMBER 24, 1886.
TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

To-morrow will be Thanksgiving Day.
Fresh apple cider at M. T. Barnett's.
The stores will close at 10 o'clock to-morrow.
Hon. Geo. Ernst, of Belmont, is in town.
The weather has turned off pleasant again.
Gen. R. M. Clarko was in town yesterday.
Mrs. J. J. Quinn is reported very ill in San Francisco.
Reno's next important acquisition will be a woolen mill.
W. M. Stewart was a passenger for Carson yesterday morning.
Con. Va. is 18 1/2, but the other stocks show a weakening tendency.
Officer Harville brought in an insane patient from Elko last evening.
Pat Connolly, known in Reno, is under arrest at Oakland, for burglary.
D. Allen and wife leave on this morning's train for a visit to Salt Lake City.
F. B. Mercer, late editor of the Eureka Sentinel, came in from Eureka last night.
Wm. Freniger has returned from the Bay. He bought a handsome stock of holiday goods.
The White House keeps nothing but the best in the clothing line. Now is the time to buy a Winter overcoat.
Dr. Hogan returned from the East Monday evening. He has had a pleasant trip, but is glad to get back home again.
A jury was obtained yesterday in the O'Keefe case. The lawyers for the defendant have great faith that their client will be acquitted.
The Kindergarten Association will give a grand entertainment Christmas night for the benefit of the school. The ladies propose to make it superb.
The Reno sharps have abandoned their intention of visiting Vienna. The Austrian Government has just issued orders prohibiting the playing of poker.
E. Meyer has a fine stock of cigars and tobacco, and sells at the lowest prices. He also keeps notions, etc., Give him a call at his stand in Martin's store.
C. S. Young announces that he has withdrawn from the control of the Carson Free Lance, and that hereafter the paper will be published by the management of the Carson Index.
Mrs Gibson and Miss Taddie Doane, school teacher and assistant at the Pyramid Lake Indian Reservation, have resigned their positions and are to be succeeded by two young ladies from the East.
For everything necessary to make your Thanksgiving dinner extra fine go to M. T. Barnett's. He has lemons, citrons, raisins, spices, all kinds of vegetables, fruits, candies, etc.
The Armory Hall was again crowded last night. The Catholic Fair promises to be a great success this year. Father Maloney is all smiles these times seeing that the ladies are doing so well. The admittance is only 25 cents. If you want a good laugh just go and see for yourselves. Tickets for the grand ball on Thanksgiving night can be had at the hall, also at the Palace restaurant and Fredrick's jewelry store.
SENDING COWS TO PASTURE.—J. S. Wheeler, who has charge of Miller & Lux's ranch in Piute Valley, shipped sixteen car loads of cows to California from Humboldt House last week. The cows were poor and it was feared that they would not get through the Winter if left on the range near Summit Lake.
FOR SALE.—Mrs. M. J. McGrath desires to sell her ranch near Mill Station, lower end of Washoe Valley. Also all household goods, seventy-five stands of bees, three milch cows, wagons, etc. Everything will be sold at a very reasonable rate.

THE NEVADA SENATORSHIP.

What an Uncompromising Republican says on the Subject.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16, 1886.
EDITOR SILVER STATE:—While I have never had an overwhelming opinion of yourself, on account of your Democracy, I have still had a sneaking admiration of your little one-horse newspaper, because, though Democratic, it has in the years that I have known it, stood up for the right, aside from partisanship. There are probably two or three people in Nevada who are acquainted with the undersigned, and who know he is always untrue to his political convictions in that he thinks that Nevada Republicans are a lot of slaves when they permit themselves to be driven like sheep to the shambles into a corporation corral to send either Mackay or Stewart to the United States Senate, as a Representative of the interests of the Sagebrush State. Mr. Mackay cares as much about the interests of the Republican party and State of Nevada as I do about the agonies of the kittens of my prolific she-cat when I down them in the wash tub to save them from overrunning my modest dwelling, and avoid the land-lady's protest that if her tom cat isn't let alone by the rising generations of tom cats she will raise the rent in the dead of Winter.
Stewart abandoned Nevada in two senses. When he was her representative he—either purposely or ignorantly—permitted the demonization of silver, thus committing a sin of omission or commission, either of which is unpardonable under the circumstances, and which did a great deal towards creating undue and unnecessary adversity in the State of Nevada.
I am not advocating the cause of any particular man against either Stewart or Mackay, or Mackay or Stewart and for the moment will drop my partisanship; but I do want to say that the men of Nevada are unworthy their State if they do not combine in solid phalanx to resist the impression that Mackay has made in England, and particularly on the heir-apparent to the throne of England, that Nevada is a principality ruled by himself, and that its people are his serfs and dependants. As to Mr Stewart he has become so puffed with his own importance as to consider it as a crime for any man to dispute his right to a seat in the United State Senate from Nevada. Pride goeth before a fall, and if the unwed and unbought members of the ensuing Legislature of the State of Nevada will but do their duty and resist the influence of the "snack" the time is not far distant when the "snack" will be converted that all things and all men are not for him and of it. Your Senatorial fight is a parallel to the Nye-DeLong fight. Shall that disgraceful contest be repeated? The men who were then the State Senators and the sons of Hagar, who sold their birthright for a mess of potash (or, as Tom Tammant used to say in his speeches, "a mess of potash"), are either dead from conscience strake or in the red and yellow leaf of repentance for a dire political sin. Let the men who stood up so boldly and so earnestly for Charley DeLong and those who in the early days of Nevada fought the battle for partisanship and principle, fight it out on the old line. Whether they elect a Democrat or Republican, let them repel the insinuation that Nevada is the "rotten borough," drive out camel-bargers and French Princes from Lincoln and stick for home rule in Nevada as strenuously as Mackay refuses to contribute for home rule in Ireland, and as emphatically as he declares that he doesn't propose to take care of all the Irish in America, nor put every Cornish son of a mother on the pay-roll. FRED H. HART.

AN OLEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC.—The Palace Bakery folks do make their candy, and do not import cheap adulterated goods. We commenced candy making 18 months ago, and said then as now, that we don't give up what we once undertake to do. Our candy trade has increased 25 per cent. since, for which we feel thankful to the public. We do not only make candy once a week, but every day in the week, and we will be pleased to show our shop to any one. Our place shall be known after this as the Nevada Cncker and Candy Factory. We sell candy wholesale and retail. Leave your money in Reno, don't send elsewhere. Respectfully,
O. HARTUNG.

WELL PAID BRUISERS.—The San Francisco papers say the receipts from the sale of tickets at the Sullivan-Ryan prize fight in San Francisco were $9,904. The amount divided between the fighters was $8,994, of which Sullivan received $6,700 50 and Ryan $2,293 50, according to the articles of agreement. The expenses reached $1,000, including $5 for each of the local pugilists who participated in the preliminary sparring exhibition.

SHIPPING ORE TO RENO.—A. D. Le-maire, of Battle Mountain, is shipping considerable ore to the new smelting works at Reno. They buy all kinds of ore containing gold and silver at the new works.

Surveyor General Powning, of Nevada, recently removed, owes his ousting, it seems, to "flagrant and pernicious activity." He is the publisher of the Reno Journal, and during the Presidential campaign did his best in the service of Blaine. After the election the Journal was moderate enough in tone, but always Republican. Clippings from anti-election numbers of Mr Powning's paper were brought under the Presidential notice, and they appear to have had such an effect upon the executive temper that not only their publisher but the whole of Nevada's population, irrespective of party, was included in Mr. Cleveland's wrath. Although scores of sagebrush Democrats were candidates for the place, it has been given to Mr. Irish, who has hitherto roamed and voted in the wilds of Iowa.—S. F. Post.

The number of serviceable vessels in the navy is two first-rate, ten second-rate, twenty third-rate and seven fourth-rate vessels. The latter class include two torpedo rams.

George W. Cassidy is at Winnemucca examining the National Bank at that place.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all Druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Tab. 21-avrl:ly

PARKER'S MAP OF NEVADA.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

—THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL—

MAP OF THE STATE,

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to insure its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements; also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, school or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draughtsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00,
And copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.
